

Bond Issue Is Proposed for School Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislative Council, after several days of arguing, today agreed on a division of an additional $3 million a year for the state's higher educational institutions.

The council approved a once-rejected committee recommendation to give the bulk of the new money to the University of Arkansas and its branches.

The council failed, by three votes, to reconsider a state Department of Education budget, which was amended and adopted Wednesday.

The money split, if the Legislature follows the council, will give $1,963,000 annually to the university, its medical center and extension services, and divide the remainder between seven state-supported colleges.

Shortly before the vote was taken, the council rejected a proposal to split the $3 million 50-50 between the university and the colleges.

Thirteen members voted for a motion to reopen discussion of the Education Department's budget. Only one member voted against it, but the 13 favorable votes were not enough to obtain reconsideration.

Ford's job is involved because of an amendment adopted Wednesday which would raise the commissioner's salary from $10,000 to $12,000 a year but would require him to have a doctor's degree.

Ford has a master's degree, but not a doctor's.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A $53 million bond issue to meet buildings needs was suggested Wednesday by the presidents of the University of Arkansas and the seven state-supported colleges who would finance the issue by a one-cent tax on soft drinks.

If approved by the legislature, a special election could be called before the lawmakers adjourned. Should the proposal be rejected by the voters, Gov. Orval E. Faubus could veto the program.

The idea came during a hearing before the Arkansas Legislative Council's Education Commission, which will pass the matter on to the full Council.

Even though a close aide of Faubus advanced the proposal for the educators, the governor himself said today he would have to have more information on it before he would express an opinion.

Lura Mae Impson

Chairman of the Hempstead County Chapter of the National Foundation, is Mrs. Lura Mae Impson who will direct the 1961 new March of Dimes for the County. Campaign dates are January 2-31.

Mrs. Impson is the wife of Thompson Impson and has an eight year old daughter. They live on the Rosston Road and Mrs. Impson is employed by Bramlett Oil Co. The campaign goal for Hempstead is $2,485.

The action, which neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma supported, came after reports that Pathet Lao forces ringing the capital were poised for attack.

Right-wing rebel Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, who staged a break-through on the Namkadingh River from 100 miles east of Vientiane Wednesday, was reported advancing on the capital too. He had regrouped his forces, recrossed the river, captured Pakadingh off the mouth of the Namkadingh and was marching on Paksane, about 90 miles east of Vientiane.

A paratroop battalion, commanded by Capt. Kong Le, has been in charge of the capital's security since Kong Le's coup last August which overthrew the pro-American government.

The government agreed to a three-cornered meeting in a neutral place of Souvanna Phouma, rightists and the Pathet Lao.

A communiqué said the government would do all in its power to make a cease-fire effective.

Leaflets distributed by the garrison leaders declared outright opposition to the Pathet Lao and the leftist Laotian Youth Association.

The garrison leaders vowed to "devote our life's blood" to defending the neutralist government and suppressing Pathet Lao.

Laos Action Is Aimed Against Communists

By ROY ESSOYAN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Government military elements took over Vientiane today in an action aimed at placing this Laotian capital on a war footing against the threat of pro-Communist or right-wing rebel attack.

Pro-Communist Pathet Lao elements fled the city.

The government threatened "the most rigorous military measures" against any elements seeking to obstruct its activities or influence its neutralist policies.

This capital bristled with guns, tanks and truckloads of soldiers in full battle gear for a few tense hours, but, by noon the city had returned to normal.

The action, which neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma supported, came after reports that Pathet Lao forces ringing the capital were poised for attack.

Gets Old Job With Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dan Stephens of Clinton, who headed the Democratic presidential campaign in Arkansas, returned to his former post as aide to Gov. Orval E. Faubus Dec. 1. It was announced Wednesday.

CHICAGO (AP)—James R. Hoffa, indicted with two associates in a Florida real estate venture, surrendered to a U. S. marshal Wednesday, posted $10,000 bond, then hustled back to a hotel to take up the business of his powerful Teamsters Union.

Hoffa's appearance before U. S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike was sandwiched in between rounds of Teamsters conferences at a South Side hotel.

The president of the nation's biggest union was named in a 12-count indictment voted by a U. S. district court grand jury in Orlando, Fla. The indictment, charging mail fraud involving alleged misuse of union funds, linked Hoffa with two other men in a 2,400-acre land development project, Sun Valley, Inc.

Without waiting to be served with a warrant, Hoffa sped downtown to the U. S. Marshals office, surrendered and was fingerprinted. Brought before Pike, he was ordered to appear for removal hearing Friday.

At about the same time, Henry Lower and Robert E. McCarthy Jr. were arrested in Detroit, taken before Federal Judge Theodore Levin and ordered to appear Monday for a similar hearing on removal to Florida.

Lower, former officer of a Detroit Teamsters local, was released on $50,000 bond and McCarthy, former branch manager of the Bank of Commonwealth at Detroit, was released on personal recognizance bond of $10,000.

The indictment was announced in Washington by Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers. It grew out of a 13-month investigation by the FBI, Postal authorities and other agents, and an 11-month probe by the grand jury.

Sun Valley, Inc., was founded in 1954, with Lower as its president, to develop a tract in Brevard County on Florida's East Coast. But only six houses were built on the land before the project became embroiled in law suits and subsequently was sold to Edwin H. Willis, a Titusville, Fla., banker and land developer.

Rogers said the three men are accused in the indictment of using more than a half million dollars of Teamsters funds on the project, which was advertised as a retirement haven for union members.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Denny Rusk, 51, rated a leading possibility for appointment as secretary of State, spent about 45 minutes today with President-elect John F. Kennedy but declined to say whether they talked about a role for him in the new administration.

He told newsmen they discussed foreign affairs generally and especially organization of the government to carry out foreign policy.

Rusk, a Truman administration assistant secretary of State, is now head of the Rockefeller Foundation with headquarters in New York.

Newsmen on watch outside Kennedy's home noted that Kennedy did not accompany Rusk beyond the door.

Just in advance of the Rusk visit, Kennedy had conferred with Byron Leslie (Whizzer) White, then had come out on the steps with White to tell newsmen they had been talking about his coming down "and working with us." White has been mentioned for attorney general or solicitor general.

Rusk was in charge of Far Eastern affairs when he was in the State Department, but he said the conversation today covered the full range of foreign affairs. He said he has no present appointment to confer again with Kennedy, and that today's meeting was his first opportunity to do so.

He said Skarda and Pecory maintained that the company was a legitimate business.

"It is estimated that with all agreements made on transactions, the land sales would run into hundreds of thousands of dollars," Coo said.

Pecory and Skarda have waived preliminary hearing here, Coo said. The cases are expected to be considered by a grand jury now in session.

Coo said Pecory is under a $5,000 Arkansas bond after an arrest on a fugitive warrant charging him with violation of the Illinois securities law.

Skarda is under three $5,000 Arkansas bonds in indictments there charging him with false pretenses in securities transactions, Coo said.

The assistant attorney general said Pecory was arrested last Thursday at a Birmingham hotel and Skarda submitted to arrest at the Jefferson County sheriff's office Monday.

Investigators said down payments on the land ranged from $10 up.

Bridges said reports had been received on sales as far west as Texas, and that other sales in Michigan and other northern states had been reported.

Dancer May Have to Explain All

NEW YORK (AP)—State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz says acrobatic dancer Nicholas Davaris, who pointed the best-seller, "How I Made $2 Million on the Stock Market," is out of step with the facts.

Lefkowitz announced today he has obtained a State Supreme Court order requiring the author and others to appear with his books and records. Davaris last was reported residing in Paris.

Davaris' tome relates how he parlayed $37,000 into $2 million from his "system" of playing the market from January, 1953, to July, 1959. From that point to October, 1960, Lefkowitz said investigation showed, Davaris lost $65,000 in the market.

Lefkowitz said a probe of Davaris' accounts and records make the figure nearer $216,000 than $2 million.

This figure, said the attorney general, was for the 1953-59 period. Taking into consideration the subsequent loss, Lefkowitz said, Davaris' 1953-60 profit was only about $152,000.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal taxpayers who claim deductions for state sales tax payments may get special help next year from Uncle Sam.

If the Internal Revenue Service adopts a plan now being considered, it will issue tables telling how much may reasonably be deducted for sales taxes in each state which has them.

Sales taxes currently are levied in 34 states and the District of Columbia.

Most taxpayers do not keep records of sales tax payments and IRS agents often are asked how large a deduction will be allowed. While the agency long has had rules of thumb to determine whether a tax deduction seems out of line, it never has had a national policy of giving out guidelines.

Last year, each district IRS office was allowed to decide whether to issue local guidelines or tables. These were issued in about 20 states.

It was understood the tables now being considered probably would be issued in all affected states or in none.

Reasonable deductions would be listed in these tables, according to various income levels and family sizes. The tables would not take local sales taxes into account.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The L. F. Seidenstricker of Prairie County today were named as Arkansas 1960 farm family of the year.

Winners in the northeast district, the family, including a son, Robert, 3, were picked over four other district winners.

The honor was announced at a luncheon.

The annual contest is sponsored by the Arkansas Press Association, the Arkansas Power & Light Co. and state agricultural agencies.

Seidenstricker, born and reared on the land he now farms, cultivates 915 acres.

Rice is his major crop. He harvested about 22,000 bushels off 218 acres this year.

The farm is fully mechanized, employing only four workers during the harvest season.

The Seidenstrickers live about 1 1/2 miles southeast of Hazen on State Highway 11.

Each district winner gets an award of $1 and a plaque.

Runners-up in each district get lesser cash awards.

District winners had been announced previously.

Kennedy Offers Cabinet Post to Whizzer White

WASHINGTON (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy today offered a post in his administration to Byron Leslie (Whizzer) White, Denver attorney.

Kennedy and White gave this news to reporters on the doorstep of the Kennedy home in Georgetown, but declined to say what the position is.

White, 43, is a close friend of Kennedy. He was better known as "Whizzer" White while an All-American football star at the University of Colorado.

White has been mentioned for both attorney general and solicitor general in the Justice Department.

Being vague, White told newsmen that no specific post was discussed. But when reporters asked if he had enough information about the offer to make up his mind, White grinned and replied, "Yes."

He said he would give Kennedy his reply in a few days. He is returning to Denver this afternoon.

White and Kennedy first met in England when Kennedy's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, was ambassador to London before World War II. White was an Rhodes scholar.

Kennedy, standing with White at the doorway, told reporters the had no plans to announce any Cabinet appointments today.

Before the meeting with White, Kennedy discussed with Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., possible choices for attorney general and assistant attorney general in charge of the antitrust division.

Immediately after their breakfast conference at Kennedy's Georgetown home, the two entered a car for a quick trip to Georgetown University Hospital and a brief visit with Mrs. Kennedy and John F. Kennedy Jr. The baby is to be baptized in the hospital chapel this afternoon.

Kefauver had time only to tell reporters that he and Kennedy had a "very pleasant conversation" in which Justice Department appointments were discussed.

Kefauver, chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, said earlier that his interest is in seeing that Kennedy picks an attorney general and an assistant in charge of the antitrust division of the department who will provide strong enforcement.

He said a number of men are acceptable to him, but did not give their names.

Kennedy also fitted into his busy day a leisurely talk with Adlai E. Stevenson.

Bond Issue Is

"I haven't seen the proposal and I would have to know more about it," Faubus said.

Some council members indicated they would oppose the plan in the legislature.

Others said they were willing to put the matter to a vote of the people.

Under the proposal, the colleges and university would use $42 million of the bond issue, the state hospital and Children's Colony would receive about $8 million and the rest would be earmarked for surplus and contingencies.

William J. Smith, a Faubus attorney acted as spokesman for the school officials. He said the proposed one-cent tax on each bottle of soft drink would bring in approximately $9.9 million annually. The amount of the issue it could support would depend on the terms of the issue, but Smith said the $9.9 million would finance about $33 million over a 20-year period at three and one-half per cent.

Necessary bills to get the tax handed out to the institutions as through the legislature have been drafted in preliminary form, Smith said.

A possible two-cent-per-bottle
levy was suggested by Izard Rep.
John E. Miller and Perry Rep.
Paul Van Dalsem. The revenue yield would be about 72 million annually, and the construction could be put on a pay-as-you-go basis, they said.
Smith said there was some doubt that a two-cent tax on a 10-cent soft drink could be "justified as a selective sales tax."
The one-cent revenue would go into short-term government obligations with the income to be handed out to the institutions as they justified their requests.

TELEPHONE TALK

Fred D. Gray, Wire Chief, Hope, Arkansas

Season's Greetings

My, how time does fly by! I was transferred to Hope a year ago, the first of December. That time has really passed by in a hurry and here it is Christmas time and a New Year to enter into. In behalf of all the Employees of the Telephone Company in Hope, I would like to extend greetings to all of you for a Merry Christmas and a Wonderful New Year.

It has been a pleasure for us to have served you this year. We are aware of the many things you have done to make this possible and to make our jobs most pleasant.
As your friends and neighbors, we are looking forward to the New Year of 1961 and being able to serve you.

Promise A Princess For Christmas

Well, it's that time of year again when the men of Hope tackle the problem of selecting something for Christmas for the "lady of the house."

Some of us men never seem to know what to choose. But this year I've got good news for puzzled shoppers... a Christmas surprise she'll use and treasure all year long. It's the new Princess phone.

It's little, the ladies love it, and it lights. The dial glows softer than a light on your Christmas tree, and when you lift the receiver, shines brightly. It has a smart new oval shape, too.

So, why not promise her a Princess phone for Christmas?
If you want to surprise her, we have a Christmas tree-shaped gift certificate to hang on the tree. It unfolds to show her the colors in which the Princess phone is available... white, pink, turquoise, blue and beige. After Christmas, we'll install the Princess phone in the color and place she likes best.

Like to order a Princess phone for you "best girl?"
Just call the Telephone Business Office or ask any telephone man or woman.

Get Numbers Now For Holiday Calls

I know a lot of folks in Hope will be making long distance calls over the holidays.

To get everybody's call through as fast as possible, it's especially important that you call by number. If there are numbers you don't know, the long distance operator will be glad to get them for you ahead of time, so you'll have them when you call around Christmas or New Year's. This "number service" is always free.

We'll also send you a Blue Book so you can keep a record of your frequently-called numbers.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

This Girl Tormented By Her Innermost Thoughts

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
This is the story of a girl who is constantly tormented by her own innermost thoughts, leaving her with no peace of mind or self-confidence. To live without fear of people or to be content with her own abilities.

This is by no means, however, a stupid girl, for she has proven even to herself to be a person of above-average capabilities. And yet she can't comprehend the reasons behind all her unhappiness. She feels life isn't even worth living. These feelings, I might add, have resulted in a most unhealthy state of mind, for she no longer cares—has lost all hope and is often either in a state of despair or is always crying. Although she is a person with high ideals and wouldn't think of hurting anyone, she is constantly hurt by others, or by feelings of inadequacy or emotional insecurity. Since this girl is only 18, I would like your opinion so I can try to restore her faith in the world. Do you think her trouble stems from the fact that she thinks negatively about herself? B.A.P.

Dear B. A. P.: Negative thought is poisonous to body and soul. The sooner the girl reverses her thinking, the better. Encourage her to do something every day for another person, even if it is only to send a card, magazine or flowers. The very joy of giving is therapy and will take her mind off herself.

Dear Helen:

My troubles may be very small compared to others, but they still cause a terrible hurt. I have been married only three months and am now expecting a child in eight months. During these three months, my husband has gone out, leaving me alone, gotten drunk and not come home until late. His explanation to my question of "Why?" is, "I don't know." This has happened on the average of about three times a month. The times in between he is all one could ask for in a husband. He has told me he prefers sitting own innermost thoughts, leaving her with no peace of mind or self-confidence. To live without fear of people or to be content with her own abilities.

During these three months, my husband has gone out, leaving me alone, gotten drunk and not come home until late. His explanation to my question of "Why?" is, "I don't know." This has happened on the average of about three times a month. The times in between he is all one could ask for in a husband. He has told me he prefers sitting own innermost thoughts, leaving her with no peace of mind or self-confidence. To live without fear of people or to be content with her own abilities.

This is by no means, however, a stupid girl, for she has proven even to herself to be a person of above-average capabilities. And yet she can't comprehend the reasons behind all her unhappiness. She feels life isn't even worth living. These feelings, I might add, have resulted in a most unhealthy state of mind, for she no longer cares—has lost all hope and is often either in a state of despair or is always crying. Although she is a person with high ideals and wouldn't think of hurting anyone, she is constantly hurt by others, or by feelings of inadequacy or emotional insecurity. Since this girl is only 18, I would like your opinion so I can try to restore her faith in the world. Do you think her trouble stems from the fact that she thinks negatively about herself? B.A.P.

Dear B. A. P.: Negative thought is poisonous to body and soul. The sooner the girl reverses her thinking, the better. Encourage her to do something every day for another person, even if it is only to send a card, magazine or flowers. The very joy of giving is therapy and will take her mind off herself.

Dear Helen:

My troubles may be very small compared to others, but they still cause a terrible hurt. I have been married only three months and am now expecting a child in eight months. During these three months, my husband has gone out, leaving me alone, gotten drunk and not come home until late. His explanation to my question of "Why?" is, "I don't know." This has happened on the average of about three times a month. The times in between he is all one could ask for in a husband. He has told me he prefers sitting

SWC to Decide on Comment by Hog Coach

DALLAS (AP) — Bigwigs of the Southwest Conference "come to Dallas today with a possible hot potato to handle—What to do about Frank Broyles, the Arkansas football coach, and his public statements criticizing officiating in the Arkansas-Mississippi game.

This violates the so-called "Gag Rule" that prohibits an athletic official speaking out on the merits of the officials on the field. It is supposed to be presented in writing to the conference.

Southern Methodist was put on probation in 1958 when athletic officials had some tart things to say about the officiating in the SMU-Texas A&M basketball game, in which goal tending was called to give the Aggies the decision.

The gag rule has come in for much criticism from the press ever since it was put in several years ago.

Other than the Broyles problem, the conference meeting and no talk of expansion is indicated. In fact there is a rule against expansion talk until Texas Tech, the newest member, is sufficiently "oriented."

The coaches are trying to reach an agreement that would limit the visits to athletic prospects.

The standing committee on limiting the number of athletic scholarships per school will again hear the conference secretary Howard Grubbs, tell whether scholarships are being held "within reasonable bounds." There is no indication that they are not.

The Athletic Directors and all Coaches hold their pow-wow Friday morning and the faculty committee, governing body of the conference, opens its session Friday afternoon.

Razorbaks Open Home Court Play

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbaks open their home basketball season against North Texas State tonight, and will send an all-veteran team onto the court.

The Hogs who won their season opener 84-75 against Missouri, but fell 50-50 before Oklahoma State Tuesday night.

Clyde Rhoden, Ronnie Garner and Pat Foster head the number one unit, along with Jerry Carlton and Alan Morrison. Carlton, with 33 points so far this season, is the leading Razorbak scorer. Rhoden has 24 points.

A Saturday night game at Blytheville will pit the Hogs against Mississippi. The Razorbaks do not begin Southwest Conference play until January.

The Arkansas freshman cagers will take on Texarkana Junior College in a preliminary game tonight.

Local Teams to Blevins for 3 Games

Three Hope teams see action tonight at Blevins, the Senior and Junior girls and the B boys.

The local Senior girls and boys journey to Prescott for two games Friday night and the Senior and Junior boys go to Nashville for a pair Saturday night.

Aaron Wants to Play Right Field

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee slugger Hank Aaron has a personal reason for hoping the Braves find a centerfield replacement for traded Billy Bruton. Hammerin' Hank wants to stay in right field.

Aaron, the National League's All-Star right fielder, indicated Wednesday night he frowns on moving to center.

"I'll do anything necessary to help the club, but I definitely would prefer to stay in right," Aaron said. "I'll give the idea of shifting to center some thought and talk with (general manager) John McFall and (manager) Charlie Dressen about it."

Dressen brought up the possibility of moving Aaron to center Wednesday after the Braves traded Bruton, second baseman Chuck Collier, pitcher Terry Fox and catcher Dick Brown to the Detroit Tigers for second baseman Frank Bolling and an unnamed player.

Kicker Has to Have a Good Holder

By JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "In front of every field goal kicker there is a holder," says Auburn fullback Ed Dyas.

Dyas' three-field goal show in a 9-6 victory over Georgia Nov. 12 was voted the most spectacular one-game performance of the college football season in an Associated Press poll.

"You just have to give some credit to Don Machen, who held the ball on the last one," the blond, crew cut senior said today.

"The pass was high, but Don got it down in time for me to kick it good. Heck, if it wasn't for that, we'd have tied, and it would have been just another game."

The game-winning field goal was a 22-yard boot, with 43 seconds left. He also kicked field goals of 24 and 28 yards in the game, and gained 100 yards running.

"I've been lucky, and I've been good, too," said the Mobile, Ala., native who is here to receive other citations for his outstanding football ability. "But I couldn't have gotten better protection anywhere. I don't think, that I got from that line of ours. Never once I bothered by an opposing lineman."

What was the secret to his spectacular kicking, unsurpassed in your mind on what you are doing? "Concentration is the big thing," he said. "You just keep your mind on what you are doing, forget about the crowd or about anybody breaking in on you."

Dyas kicked 13 field goals this season—at least one in every game. He also holds the modern NCAA career mark of 17.

Dove of Peace Hovers Over Big Leagues

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The dove of peace hovered over the majors today following the American League's official move into Los Angeles with the blessing of Dodgers owner Walter O'Malley and his fellow National Leaguers.

How long the bird will stay aloft, no one knows. Only hours after the two warring leagues had buried the hatchet Wednesday, some American Leaguers began eyeing the Giants-occupied Oakland-San Francisco territory as the next objective in its expansion program.

The American, which will operate with 10 teams next year, has a blueprint calling for 12 teams in the near future. So has the National, which will continue to function with eight clubs in 1969 and add New York and Houston in 1970.

Informed persons confided during the three day meetings that the National has been quietly sounding out Buffalo and the Dallas-Fort Worth area for possible 11th and 12th teams in 1974. Toronto is a 12th-team possibility in the American.

At a press conference, Erick outlined the conditions that must be fulfilled in the future if any club seeks to invade territories occupied by another.

A territory will be permitted to have two teams only if its population exceeds 2.4 million. The application must be made before Oct. 31 of the year previous to the intended operation. The ownership must satisfy the commissioner of individual character and collective financial stability sufficient to guarantee at least five years operation.

Further, the new club's park must be situated at least five miles from the existing team's stadium, unless both agree otherwise. The existing team must be reimbursed $100,000, plus half of the amount it had cost in the form of indemnity to minor league teams. In the Dodgers' case, O'Malley received $325,000. It had cost him $450,000 to pioneer West Coast territory.

Erick said future expansion by one club into another league would be permitted with only three-fourths approval, rather than the unanimous consent that was the major stumbling block until O'Malley relented and allowed the syndicate headed by cowboy singer Gene Autry and ex-Stanford football star Bob Reynolds to put American League baseball on the West Coast.

O'Malley, waiving the five-mile rule, compromised on a one-year stay at Wrigley Field by the new American League team, which will be called the Angels. He originally had insisted on two. He also gave the newcomers a four-year lease at his new Chavez Ravine stadium upon completion in 1962, at a $20,000 annual rental or 7 1/2 per cent of the gate.

O'Malley, waiving the five-mile rule, compromised on a one-year stay at Wrigley Field by the new American League team, which will be called the Angels. He originally had insisted on two. He also gave the newcomers a four-year lease at his new Chavez Ravine stadium upon completion in 1962, at a $20,000 annual rental or 7 1/2 per cent of the gate.

Mental Test in Sleeping Beauty Case

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Convicted of mistreating her "sleeping beauty" daughters by drugging them with barbiturates, Lillian Fratantonio will undergo a psychiatric examination before she is sentenced.

A Juvenile Court jury of six men and six women took two hours to find the tiny, 29-year-old mother of five guilty late Tuesday and end a trial that began Nov. 21.

Mrs. Fratantonio was released in custody of her husband, Vincent, 33, and her $1,000 bond was continued. Her attorneys said they would decide later whether to appeal. The conviction carries a maximum sentence of one year in jail and a $500 fine.

In allowing Mrs. Fratantonio to return home while he considers disposition of her case, Judge Albert A. Woldman commented: "This is a most unpleasant task. The court has in mind that you have an infant at home."

The judge set no date for sentencing. "First and foremost," he told her, "I'll order a psychiatric examination for you." Mrs. Fratantonio has been undergoing private psychiatric treatment since last August, a few weeks after her arrest.

When the verdict came, Mrs. Fratantonio dabbed at her eyes with a handkerchief. Surrounded by relatives, she hurried from the courtroom by a back entrance.

Still to be decided by Judge Woldman is custody of the two little girls who became nationally known as Cleveland's "sleeping beauties"—Bernadette, 3, and her sister, Venita, 6. They have been in the care of a Catholic children's home since September.

In September 1959 Bernadette began falling into prolonged comas which mystified medical men. The cause of these comas was still undiagnosed when last July her sister, Venita, joined her at Mount Sinai Hospital with similar symptoms.

In early August blood tests at the hospital showed presence of barbiturates, a sleep-inducing drug, in the children's blood.

On Aug. 13 police obtained from their mother a statement in which she admitted giving her daughters barbiturates. During the trial she repudiated this statement.

The prosecution offered no motive for the druggings other than a brief reference in the mother's statement that she hoped giving the girls the barbiturates would bring her and her husband closer together.

Court Dissolves Picketing Ban

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court Tuesday dissolved a Washington Chancery Court injunction prohibiting picketing at a Fayetteville construction project, but said Brennan-Boyd Construction Co. could seek another injunction in the lower court.

The high court gave no reason for its action, the second time in three weeks that it dissolved an injunction in the case. A ban was set aside earlier on a technicality.

The dispute involves the remodeling of the Mountain Inn Hotel at Fayetteville. Ironworkers Local 584 set up a picket line, but Brennan-Boyd was granted an injunction. The union appealed, and the injunction was dissolved by the high tribunal Nov. 23.

Other unions involved in the dispute are Carpenters Local 1249, United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of Plumbing and Pipefitters International Local 29 and International Brotherhood of Electric Workers Local 107.

One Killed, Four Hurt in Accident

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—One person was killed and four others injured in a two-car collision on Highway 25 near here Tuesday.

Killed was Rollo Fleeman, 50, of Bard, in Greene County. Fleeman's wife was hospitalized here in critical condition. Less seriously hurt were the couple's 4-year-old daughter, Doris Jean; a 19-year-old niece, Laverne Fleeman of Manila; and the driver of the other vehicle, Chuck May of Paragould.

Officers said the Fleeman pickup truck was struck head-on by a station wagon driven by Mays. Mays had pulled out to pass another car, officers said.

Urges Union of Conservatives

ATLANTA (AP)—A national organization of conservatives was urged by Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., at a meeting of a group called Georgians Unwilling to Surrender here Tuesday night.

"All that is needed to save our country from communism is an organization such as yours in every state," Alford told the newly-formed Atlanta group. He urged the organization join with conservative organizations throughout the nation to preserve states rights.

Promises Bill for Vote Booths

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rep. Glenn P. Wallther of Polaski County said Tuesday he would introduce a bill in the 1969 Arkansas Legislature to provide state financing of voting booths in all Arkansas counties.

The bill would call for $185,000 for the construction, Wallther said. County judges would be required to have the booths built and would be responsible for their transportation to and from polling places.

Wallther said he thought adequate booths could be built for $15 each.

State law provides for voting booths but virtually no counties have them.

Bombing of Cuba Church Laid to Reds

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Church officials today blamed Communists for a shattering bomb explosion in a Roman Catholic church whose pastor is a leading figure of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.

The attack, first on a church since Castro's feud with Roman Catholic officials began, took place just after Tuesday night's vespers services. None of the 50 persons inside was injured but pews and flooring in the Our Lady of Charity church were damaged extensively.

The bombing underscored the growing tension between the church and Castro, whose internal problems appeared to be mounting on three other fronts: economic, labor, and armed opposition.

A small red flag was left inside the bombed church. It bore a hammer and sickle and the inscription: "Viva Khrushchev, down with the clergy. Viva Fidel Castro."

Pastor of the church, located in the older eastern section of Havana, is Msgr. Eduardo Boza Masvidal. He is a member of the church hierarchy which Sunday angrily denied in a pastoral letter the prime minister's charge that priests took sugar company bribes to preach against his revolution.

Several other bombings in Havana's residential districts during the night, marking an intensified campaign by antigovernment factions.

The bombings are just one of the growing signs of opposition to the Castro regime.

An increasing number of armed insurgents, including some of Castro's own soldiers, have taken to mountains of western and central Cuba.

Insurgents also are reported stepping up activities in the Escambray Mountains of Las Villas Province in south-central Cuba.

Unconfirmed reports say this insurgent activity caused Castro and his brother Raul, armed forces minister, to go to Las Villas to supervise the rebel hunt by army troops and militiamen. Raul previously moved his headquarters from Havana to easternmost Santiago where unrest is reported.

There were indications the Castro regime failed in an attempt to persuade labor to work today—a national holiday in memory of Gen. Antonio Maceo, hero of the independence war against Spain—and contribute the day's pay to the workers' social fund.

The Labor Ministry announced that a petition by the workers asking to work arrived too late to be approved at labor assemblies. Government newspapers had given prominent play to a report that today would be a work day.

Reliable sources said large segments of labor are "fed up with so many deductions" from their pay checks and decided to take the day off, forcing the Labor Ministry to change its plans at the last minute.

Says Missionaries Taught Civil Rights

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Dr. Marion A. Boggs of Little Rock, Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. (Southern), said Tuesday night that the clamor of colored people throughout the world for a higher place in society is partly the result of missionary teachings.

Addressing a meeting of Presbyterian leaders here, Boggs said people of color are rising up and asking their rights partly because missionaries have taught them they are human beings and are entitled to certain rights.

"They've taken us at our word," Boggs said. "We can not separate ourselves from this issue all across the country."

Sing to the Dead

DENISON, Tex. (AP)—A group of carolers gathered around the front steps at the home of Gaitha P. Brouse, 72, a retired school teacher, and sang several Christmas songs Tuesday night.

Although the lights were on, Brouse failed to come to the door. They knocked but received no answer. Inside they found him slumped in his favorite chair.

They called police, who said the former teacher had died several hours earlier, apparently from natural causes.

Texasan Dies in Arkansas Wreck

BENTON, Ark. (AP) — William H. Kirkwood, 55, of Athens, Tex., was killed Tuesday night when his car failed to make a curve and plunged off an overpass on U.S. Highway 67 four miles south of here. Officers said that Kirkwood was alone in the car, which fell 35 feet onto some Missouri Pacific Railroad tracks.

Tractor-Truck Accident Fatal

HAVEN, Mo. (AP) — Woodrow Avani, 45, of Hot Springs, Ark., was killed in the collision of his tractor-trailer truck and a Frisco Railroad freight train at a crossing here Tuesday. Avani apparently could not stop his truck on a rain-slick pavement in time to avoid hitting the train, officers said. He jumped from the truck and was crushed when the vehicle fell on him after it hit the train.

Lull Settles in Laos Fighting

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Right wing rebel Gen. Phoumi Nosavan's forces have withdrawn 15 to 20 miles south of the Namkading River and a lull has settled on that crucial battlefield, according to authoritative reports today. The lull revived hopes in Vientiane for resumption of peace talks to end the three-sided Laotian civil war. Phoumi apparently has abandoned temporarily any plans he may have had for a march on this capital.

Superb MEATS

A steak from Safeway has been carefully trimmed of all excess waste parts before weighing. In this way, you pay only for the perfect eating portions... which means more good eating for your money at Safeway.

* See for yourself why you get so much more!

- 1 It's cut from U.S.D.A. Choice Beef. Only beef judged by expert U. S. government graders to be of fine-eating quality is awarded this high grade.
- 2 Like all steaks and roasts at Safeway, Safeway steaks are carefully aged to their peak of tenderness and flavor for satisfaction every time.
- 3 Our expert meat cutters keep our meat cases brimming full of freshly packaged steaks, every day, all week long.
